

October 19th, 1922. Mrs. L. Hawkins of Richardson Street saw Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills near the end of the trolley line a few minutes apart. Tom Collins saw Mrs. Mills on the trolley car near Bucculeh Park at about 8:37 P.M.

October 20th, 1922. Mrs. Opie saw Mr. or Mrs. Clark at the Mills house. Teddy first went to Clark's house on Redmond Street, then Teddy brought Clark to Mills house. Mrs. Clarke and Teddy left in an auto. Clark told Opie that they have gone to get Hall's private papers from the desk at the church, after this Teddy returned Mrs. Clark to Mills house and had a key in her hand. Opie says Charlotte corroborated this story to her today. Mrs. Opie said that Hall made frequent calls to the Mills home and her brother said that someday something will happen. He further stated that this was also noticed by a Mr. Howard and a Mrs. O'Neil, they also noticed that Hall would be at the Mills house frequently. Hall will first park on the side of Carmen Street and then change to Abeel Street. Opie said that Mrs. Kelly told her she saw Mills at his stoop some time between 9 and 9:30 P.M. on September 14th, 1922. Mrs. Opie went in her home at about 10:40 P.M. on September 14th, 1922. Mrs. Opie heard a rumor that Mrs. Hall was a good shot. Also heard that pressure was brought on Hall to marry Mrs. Mills. She informed me that Mrs. Mills sister from Paterson is in town, also said something about Charlotte and her Aunt Wittaker who lives on Walter Avenue, Livingston Manor. That the bill for Mrs. Mills operation amounted to $386. Also that Mr. Mills never cared for Charlotte and that Charlotte is sixteen years of age. (Being sixteen in July). Also that the following are Mr. Mills brothers, John, Vernon, Henry and James. Also that Mrs. Opie met Mrs. Mills about 7:25 P.M. on September 14th, 1922 and that Mrs. Mills said to her, I was at the Church and left clippings on the desk. Mrs. Mills always cleaned the chancel. Mrs. Mills told Mrs. Opie, Mrs. Kelly did not call me when you told me somebody was on the telephone. I was lying down. She then asked was it Mr. Hall. Opie said yes, Do you think it was urgent
